

Final Exam Review: English I Pre-AP

Fall Semester 2015

Study Sessions Begin Thursday, December 10th, through Monday the 14th at 8:15
in Ms. Adamson's Room (108).

Major Texts: Be familiar with the following texts, their plots, major characters, symbols, and styles.

The *Odyssey*Homer
Richard IIIWilliam Shakespeare
"Ulysses"Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Philosophers: Be familiar with the main ideas of the following philosophers.

St. AugustineThe Doctrine of Original Sin
Jean-Jacques RousseauThe Noble Savage
Nicolo MachiavelliThe Prince

Concepts: Be familiar with the following concepts, use of language, ideas, and definitions. Be prepared to apply them to all texts we have read this semester.

Greek Hero
Greek Culture/ Values
Hero Cycle/ Hero's Journey
Immortality
Realpolitik

Language: Be familiar with all of the following varieties of written expression and methods for analysis.

The Four Questions
Inference ● Evidence ● Commentary
TPCASTT
Homeric/ Epic Simile
Literary Devices (ten of them)
Rhetorical Appeals: Ethos, Pathos, Logos

Grammar: Be familiar with all of the following sentence constructions and the proper punctuation for each. You must also know the phrases listed below.

Simple sentence
Compound sentence
Complex sentence
Appositive phrases
Prepositional phrases