

NAME: _____
Planning and Organization Outline
The Odyssey

Directions: Using one of the seven prompts given to you last class, write an outline that you will use in your Timed Writing either Monday or Tuesday of next week.

This outline is due before you begin SSR/W today and is worth 15-points.

Your essay must contain an introduction, three body paragraphs, and a conclusion. Each body paragraph must have an inference, specific textual evidence from your passage journals, and thorough commentary to support your thesis statement.

The test will be next class; you will be allowed to use only this outline and any notes from class; however, you will not be able to use your books or your passage journal to write your essay test. This test will be a 30-point grade.

1. Write your thesis statement here: (Full introduction to be composed in class)

2. How will you organize your paper? (You may write fewer or more paragraphs depending on your thesis).
