

SSR Self-Evaluation Slip Name: _____ Date: _____

Book Title: _____

Author: _____

Time read: _____ Page number: _____ to: _____ for a total of: _____ pages.

Two sentence summary of your reading: _____

- SSR during class is worth 15 points. You must read from a book or e-reader.
- You must also give yourself an honest grade below; points will be deducted for blanks above. This slip will not be returned.
- You will earn a zero for sleeping.
- You will earn a zero for doing homework for another class.
- You will lose five points each time you are off task and talking to a neighbor.
- You will lose five points for doing another school reading assignment.
- You may lose points at the teacher's discretion if deemed off task or unprepared.
- You will still fill out the reading log with number of pages read and time read.
 - This log is due at the end of the semester for 50 points.

What should your grade be for today? _____ / 15

SSW Mini-log Slip Name: _____ Date: _____

Topic: _____

Mode/ Type: _____

Lines written: _____ or Pages written: _____

One sentence summary of your writing goal or purpose today:

- SSW during class is worth 15 points.
- You must also give yourself an honest grade below; points will be deducted for blanks above. This slip will not be returned.
- You will earn a zero for sleeping.
- You will earn a zero for doing homework for another class.
- You will lose five points each time you are off task and talking to a neighbor.
- You may lose points at the teacher's discretion if deemed off task or unprepared.
- You must have one ongoing piece of writing that you work on continuously for an Excalibur submission in February; you may work on different, smaller pieces too.

What should your grade be for today? _____ / 15